THE THIRD PARTY.

It is Called the Progress Party of the United States.

CHRISTENED IN CINCINNATI.

The Platform Adopted Endorses the Demands Made at St. Louis in 1889. Omaha, Neb., in 1890, and Omaha in 1891—Details of the Convention.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—The delegates to the National conference were very slow in gathering in Music Hall yesterday, and it was 9:15 before any large number was assembled.

The proceedings were opened by prayer by Rev. Gilbert De La Matyr, of Akron. Capt. Power reported for the committee on finance. In the course of his remarks he referred to the work of The Chicago Sentinel and American Nonconformist in the line of booming the conference, at which point he was interrupted by applause. He reported that $369.55 had been taken in; paid out, $365.95.

M. W. Wilkins, of Kansas, advanced and made a few remarks and called for a subscription for the benefit of Capt. Power, and moved that the chairmen of the various delegations take up such a subscription. Three cheers were called for and given with a will.

The committee on credentials reported that there were 1,417 delegates present from thirty-three states and territories. They were distributed as follows:

Alabama, 2; Arkansas, 6; California, 2; Florida, 2; Connecticut, 1; Indiana, 154; Illinois, 88; Iowa, 32; Kentucky, 59; Kansas, 41; Louisiana, 2; Missouri, 73; Michigan, 11; Massachusetts, 8; Maine, 2; New York, 8; North Carolina, 1; North Dakota, 1; Rhode Island, 1; Texas, 26; West Virginia, 13; South Carolina, 1; South Dakota, 10; Pennsylvania, 8; Tennessee, 6; Wisconsin, 21; Minnesota, 30; Nebraska, 94; Oklahoma, 3; Washington Territory, 4; Wyoming, 4; District of Columbia, 4; Colorado, 3; Ohio, 317.

It was recommended that 117 members of the Reform Press association be admitted; that each person be given but one vote, no matter how many organizations they represented; and that the southern delegates be admitted without credentials.

The committee on permanent organization reported the following:

Chairman—Senator W. A. Pepper, of Kansas.

Vice presidents—Rev. Gilbert De La Matyr, of Michigan; Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota; John H. Powers, of Nebraska; Hugh Cavanaugh, of Ohio; R. M. Humphrey, of Texas.

Secretary, W. S. Morgan, of Arkansas; assistants, S. F. Norton, Charles Chalmers, W. H. Robb, W. C. Crum, Edward Thornton, Mrs. Fannie McCormick, Emma G. Custer and Helen M. Gougar.

Mrs. Gougar is the prohibitionist who made the famous sensation about whisky on the funeral train of a California senator a few months ago. She sprang upon the platform with the help of two delegates. She said:

"I repudiate the mention of my name as secretary or assistant. I am not a delegate and that mention is unwarranted. I sympathize with you in your oppression, and am glad that you have made such a protest. But when I find that a prominent member of the Brewers' National association (Con Burkhauser) is chairman of the committee of arrangements, and when I find that he was chairman of the mass-meeting last night, I repudiate it. And I will until you repudiate that man and declare in favor of the prohibition of the liquor traffic."

This was greeted by cheers and cries of "Hurrah for Gougar!" Senator Pepper was then led to the stage, introduced as chairman and delivered a stirring address.

Professor Charles Vincent, of Kansas, introduced Mrs. Marion Tod, of Chicago, formerly of Nebraska, who made a stirring address in presenting a bouquet of flowers to the chairmen. She closed with a quotation from Victor Hugo: "He who falls for liberty and the brotherhood of labor, falls in the radiance of the future and enters a grave already illuminated by the dawn."

The enthusiasm of the convention was further evidenced by a big collection taken up to send home John E. Savage, of North Carolina, a delegate who had not enough money to get home.

The committee on rules and order of business then reported and their report, after considerable discussion, was adopted.

The conference then adjourned for dinner.

Afternoon Session.

Soon after the convention had reassembled at 2 p. m. the report of the committee on platform was presented by Ignatius Donnelly and read by Robert Schilling. It opened with a lengthy statement of the political and social grievances and evils that had rendered independent political action not only desirable, but necessary. Then came the resolutions, which read as follows:

First—That in view of the great social, industrial and economical revolution now dawning upon the civilized world, and the new and living issues confronting the American people, we believe that the time has arrived for a crystallization of political reform forces of our country, and the formation of what should be known as the People's party of the United States of America.

Second—That we most heartily endorse the demands of the platform as adopted at St. Louis, Mo., in 1889, Omaha, Neb., in 1890, and Omaha, Neb., in 1891, by the industrial organizations there represented, summarized as follows:

Third—That we urge united action of all progressive organizations in attending the conference called for Feb. 22, 1892, by six of the leading reform organizations.

Fourth—That a National central committee be appointed by this conference, to be elected by this body and of three members from each state represented, to be named by each state delegation.

Fifth—That this central committee shall represent this body, attend the National conference on Feb. 22, 1892, and if possible unite with that and all other reform organizations there assembled. If no satisfactory argument can be effected, this committee shall call a National convention not later than June 1, 1892, for the purpose of nominating candidates for president and vice president.

Sixth—That the members of the central committee for each state where there is no independent political organization, conduct an active system of political agitation in their respective states.

A—The right to make and issue money is a sovereign power to be maintained by the people for the common benefit, hence we demand the abolition of National banks as banks of issue, and as a substitute for National bank notes we demand that legal tender treasury notes be issued in sufficient volume to conduct the business of the country on a cash basis; without damage or special advantage to any class or calling, such notes to be legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private, and such notes when demanded by the people shall be loaned to them at not more than 2 per cent. per annum upon non-perishable products, as indicated in the sub-treasury plan and also upon real estate, with proper limitation upon the quantity of land and amount of money.

B—We demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

C—We demand the passage of laws prohibiting alien ownership of land, and that congress take prompt action to devise some plan to obtain all lands now owned by alien and foreign syndicates, and that all lands held by railroads and other corporations in excess of such as is actually used and needed by them be claimed by the government and held for actual settlers only.

D—Believing the doctrine of equal rights to all and special privilege to none we demand that taxation—National, state, or municipal—shall not be used to build up one interest or class at the expense of another.

E—We demand that all revenues—National, state or county—shall be limited to the necessary expenses of the government, economically and honestly administered.

F—We demand a just and equitable system of graduated tax on income.

G—We demand the most rigid, honest and just National control and supervision of the means of public communication and transportation, and if this control and supervision does not remove the abuses now existing we demand the government ownership of such means of communication and transportation.

H—We demand the election of president, vice president and United States senators by a direct vote of the people.

Great enthusiasm was manifested when the first resolution naming the new movement the Progress Party of the United States was read, the victorious element indulging in several rounds of applause. At the conclusion of the reading Shilling made an energetic argument in favor of adopting the platform as prepared, and appealed to the delegates to abstain from adding any pet theories to the document.

T. H. Davis, of Texas, an ex-Confederate officer and a six-footed, goateed, typical southerner, moved the adoption of the platform and resolutions in their entirety, declaring that it was time that the farmers of the south and the laboring men of the north clasped hands across the chasm and buried the bloody shirt forever.

He was followed by a Union soldier, Gen. John Wadsworth, of Fort Wayne, Ind., who, toward the close of an impassioned address, called upon the Texas ex-Confederate to return to the platform. Davis complied, bringing with him Col. R. W. Humphrey, the leader of the Colored Alliance of the south, which boasts of a membership of 1,250,000. The three men clasped hands and each uttered a fervent "God Bless You."

The sight moved the delegates on the floor to a frenzy. They broke from their seats, bearing aloft the banners designating the respective states and crowded upon and around the stage. The ex-Confederate carried one of the American flags that decorated the desk of the presiding officer and waved it in the air, and Wadsworth and Humphrey followed his example. The delegates were short of bunting, so they tore down the flags from the galleries and literally wrapped the three men in their folds, while cheer after cheer echoed in the rafters.

For twenty minutes or more it was a pandemonium of enthusiasm. One half the audience sang "The Star Spangled Banner," while the other half was rendering "America," and the men from Kansas and Texas hugged and embraced their colleagues from the west and north-west, and order was restored only when everybody was exhausted, and then the debate on the platform was resumed by ex-Congressman Boynton, of Massachusetts.

He was followed by representatives of all the organizations that composed the convention, and everything was harmonious until C. G. Miller, of California, came to the front with a proposition to add a strong prohibition plank in the platform. Just as soon as he had made known his intention the convention was in an uproar, and for half an hour there was a monkey and parrot kind of a time.

Miller held his ground while Senator Pepper splintered the lid of his desk with his gavel in fruitless efforts to preserve order. Above the din could be heard the voices of John McGovern, of Chicago, and Robert Schilling, the former trying to quell the California man, and the latter declaring that he was a firebrand and the tool of outside enemies of the movement, who sought to destroy it at the start.

Quiet was only secured after Senator Pepper had managed to make the convention understand that if the session continued all night, no motion for adjournment would be entertained until the Californian had been given a fair show, and the latter was then allowed to continue. On being put to a vote, however, his plank was snowed under by an overwhelming majority, and the resolutions, without addition or alteration, were adopted.

After this the roll was called for members of the National committee.

When the name of Representative Taubeneck was announced by the Illinois delegation there was a cry from all parts of the hall for his appearance on the stage, and three cheers were given for A. J. Streeter, who was seated in the Illinois delegation. Taubeneck responded in a brief speech. He said:

"You see before you all that is left of the celebrated Independent party in the Illinois legislature, so often called the 'Big Three.' We are standing on the brink of a conflict between capital and labor, and the longer that conflict is postponed the worse it will be, and our politicians might as well try to stop a cyclone or the movement of the stars as to evade this issue." At 2:30 the convention adjourned sine die.

LOVE, SWEET LOVE.

A Voluptuous Mountain Beauty the Innocent Cause of Bloodshed.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 19.—Monday afternoon a most desperate fight occurred near Stackhouse, in Madison county, N. C., between six young men. The fight came up about a girl. A young man by the name of Shelton was in love with a buxom mountain lass. A young fellow by the name of Stanley was also in love with this voluptuous belle of the mountains. Monday afternoon two Stanley brothers and another whose name was not learned, met Shelton, and without many words, opened fire upon him.

Two cousins of Shelton went to his aid and the battle began. Pistols, shotguns, and razors were used. When the smoke of the battle had cleared away it was found that Shelton was shot through the body twice, and will die. One of the Stanleys had a hole through his body also, and his death is expected. One of the Shelton brothers received two razor cuts, each to the hollow, and each deemed fatal. No arrest has yet been made, though the officers are in pursuit of those who were able to flee and had done so.

A WONDERFUL CAVE

Filled With Relics Discovered in Washington County, Pennsylvania.

WELLSBURG, W. Va., May 20.—A few days ago John Pettit and J. H. Prince, of this place, while in the western part of Washington county, Pennsylvania, made a wonderful discovery which may prove valuable. While traversing a dense forest they came upon a mound so peculiarly located that they determined to investigate it. They soon made an opening on the top, and by removing a huge flag-stone found they had been the discoverers of a cave, access to which was made through a hole about three feet square cut in a solid rock five feet in thickness. The party was unable to make a careful investigation, being without the aid of a light. They, however, brought home with them several articles of jewelry and instruments of war, supposed to have been the possessions at one time of some prehistoric race of people.

A SUCCESS.

The Venusian Tries Her Pneumatic Guns, and the Result is Satisfactory.

FORT MONROE, Va., May 20.—The Venusian returned Tuesday afternoon from the first day's trial of her pneumatic guns, everything having worked smoothly and without accident. Six shots were fired from a gun tested at ranges of a mile and less, three of them while the vessel was stationary and three while at full speed.

One shot struck the bull's eye, and all fell within the space occupied by an ordinary vessel. The center of the three guns was then tested for curve, but the valves being of different construction, the pressure could not be so accurately determined. The six shots fired from it all fell a trifle short. The projectiles maintained a uniform flight, and the board is satisfied with the result thus far.

THEIR BLOOD BOILS.

Italians Again Making Rome Howl Over New Orleans Affairs.

NEW YORK, May 20.—A Dunlap Rome cable says:

The statement cabled from America that the mayor of New Orleans had demanded the recall of Signor Corte, the Italian consul there, has caused the greatest indignation. The people are unusually outspoken on the subject in all places of public resort, and the press treats the incident in a vein of bitter sarcasm, asking whether the United States propose to demand satisfaction of Italy for the New Orleans lynchings if the present demand should be refused.

Money From an Unknown Source.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., May 21.—Morgan Cunningham, of this city, was greatly surprised yesterday, on receiving a check for $100 from a gentleman at Newberry, Green county, with the information that the balance due him would be remitted in a few days. Mr. Cunningham says the peculiar feature of the transaction is that no one there could possibly owe him anything. The check is drawn on the Goshport bank.

Poisoned From Eating Cheese.

MIDDLETOWN, O., May 21.—Harry Snyder, a grocer at Heno, a suburb across the river, recently purchased a large amount of cheese from August Borger, a neighboring farmer, and nearly every one who has eaten it is seriously affected and manifests symptoms of poisoning. Some twenty-five people are already prostrated.

Breaking the Sailing Record.

NEW ORLEANS, May 20.—The Morgan steamship El Sol, Capt. Hawthorn, arrived Monday, breaking the record from New York to New Orleans, having made the run from wharf to wharf in 4 days, 23 hours and 15 minutes.

CHILIAN AFFAIRS.

The Insurgents Have Plenty of Money

DEPOSITED IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Many Wealthy Citizens of Chili Have Contributed Large Sums of Money for the Overthrow of Balmaceda's Government—Latest Orders to Admiral Brown.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—A report is current here, in connection with the recent arrest of Senator Trumbull, the alleged agent of the Chilean insurgents, to the effect that for some time past $250,000 has been on deposit at the Bank of British North America in this city to the credit of the insurgents and their agents.

The money is said to have been sent here from Chili, and it is also said that letters are now in the possession of the government authorities which show that many of the wealthy and influential citizens of Chili have contributed this and other large sums of money for the overthrow of Balmaceda's government. United States District Attorney Carter states that the fact of there being a large sum of money on deposit here to the credit of Senator Trumbull would be an important circumstance in determining the guilt of the accused.

Considerable speculation is indulged in here as to the outcome of the attempt of the United States grand jury at Los Angeles to secure dispatches from the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies relative to Chilean affairs. The superintendents of the two companies were summoned on Monday to produce these dispatches, and it is said they have both refused to do so.

Must Have the Itata.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—The Evening Post's Washington special says that the government has instructed Admiral Brown to demand the immediate surrender of the Itata when she arrives at any of the ports in the hands of the insurgents.

Coal for the Esmeralda.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 21.—The Chilean cruiser Esmeralda will probably leave Acapulco in a day or two as coal, which has been shipped for her from the United States, will undoubtedly arrive to-day or to-morrow.

IN THE COKE REGION.

A Split in the Ranks of the Two Labor Organizations.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 21.—A split has occurred between the two labor organizations in the coke region, the Knights of Labor and the Miners' Protective union. Tuesday's district convention of miners was called by the Knights of Labor, who are in the majority. The Miners' Protective union were denied representation. Wednesday a meeting of the Miners' Protective union was held and the strike was declared off and an order given to the members to return to work.

The Knights of Labor convention was resumed yesterday. The committee appointed Tuesday reported that the superintendents reported that they were told the sliding scale now in effect, and under which their works now running had resumed, was the only scale the company would consider and it needed no conference. Those wishing to return to work could do so in any number until all the plants were resumed, anything more was distinctly refused.

The convention voted to continue the strike for another six weeks at least.

Collision of Cable Cars.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Yesterday evening, while the Washington tunnel was blocked with cable cars, a collision occurred between the Madison avenue grip tram and a Milwaukee avenue grip car, in which one man was seriously injured. The Milwaukee avenue train was standing at the east end of the line, when a Madison street train came along and dashed into it, wrecking two of the cars and seriously injuring John Bodie. The driver of the Madison street train claims his brake would not work, and he could not stop his train.

Will Use Them as Witnesses.

NEW YORK, May 21.—It has been decided to send to Chicago the eleven Austrian contract laborers who are held at the barge office charged with coming here under contract to work for the City Cable railway and the Consumers' Gas company, of Chicago. Their expenses will be paid by the government. They will be used as witnesses against the above named corporations. If the latter are found guilty they will be fined $1,000 for each man hired.

Switchman Crushed to Death.

BUFFALO, May 21.—A switchman known as Billy Wallace, was crushed to death this morning in the Lake Shore yards at East Buffalo. The deceased came here from Pittsburg a few weeks ago, and it is believed was using an assumed name. He had been working on a railroad in Pittsburg and had trouble which resulted in his discharge. He was a member of Lodge 62 of the Switchmen's union in Pittsburg, and was about 28 years old.

Two Deaths From Poisoned Fish.

PITTSBURG, May 21.—Two men have died from eating the poisonous smoked sturgeon purchased last week. Their names are Thomas O'Rourke, of this city, and Henry Brose, of Etta. O'Rourke bought the sturgeon at the Pittsburg market. It is not known where Brose purchased his. The coroner has been notified and will make a thorough investigation.

Ate Poison Oak.

COLUMBUS, Ind., May 21.—August Buxler, German, died here yesterday morning from eating leaves of poison oak with suicidal intent.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1891.

THE Greenup Gazette's information is that the counties of Lewis, Greenup, Carter and Boyd will vote solidly for the new Constitution.

KENTUCKY counties seem to be getting along very well. The Census Bureau at Washington has issued a bulletin on foreign, national, State and county indebtedness. The total indebtedness of the counties of this State, less the sinking fund, was, for 1890, $5,948,652, against $5,877,043 in 1880. The total bonded debt of the counties in 1890 was $6,008,816, the floating debt $268,003 and the sinking fund was $388,167. The debt of the counties less the sinking fund was, in 1880, per capita, $3.56, and in 1890, per capita, $3.20.

Mason County's indebtedness is gradually being reduced. The handsome new jail that cost about $50,000 is paid for, the last bond having been redeemed this week. Then the county is traversed now in all directions with fine turnpikes, and they are all paid for. The expenditures in this direction have been very heavy for several years, but the building of pikes is about completed, and only a small sum will be required hereafter for that purpose. The principal indebtedness of the county now is the $50,000 voted a few years ago to aid in completing the grand C. and O. Railway down the banks of the Ohio. The county will be out of debt in the course of a few years, and the only levy then will be mainly for the support of our charitable institutions and in aid of the free public schools.

This levy in aid of free public schools will be made for the first time at the present session of the Court of Claims. It was voted last August by a big majority. But notwithstanding this tax for school purposes, the county levy this year will not be any higher than it was last year.

A Bargain.

Red and blue wrapping paper for 6 cents per pound—former price 8 cents.
KACKLEY & McDUGGLE.

Strawberry Cream.

Mash one quart of berries, strain through a sieve, sweeten with three-quarters of a pound of white sugar and beat well. Pour in a pint and a half of rich cream, and beat well for a quarter of an hour. Serve at once in small glasses or cups for dessert.

Here and There.

Miss Katie Niland having just returned from Cincinnati with a complete stock of summer millinery most cordially invites the ladies of Maysville and Mason County to her display on Saturday, at which will be shown among other things handsome pattern hats and bonnets.

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Got Their Orders.

The General Superintendent of the C. and O. has issued an order to all conductors and engineers to limit the speed of their trains to six miles an hour while running through Maysville. An excellent order, and issued none too soon. Heretofore, many of the passenger trains rushed through part of this city at the rate of twenty or thirty miles an hour.

Prohibition Ticket.

The Prohibitionists have nominated the following State ticket: For Governor, Colonel Josiah Harris, of Paducah; Lieutenant-Governor, H. M. Winslow, of Carrollton; Attorney-General, E. J. Polk, of Louisville; Auditor, W. W. Goddard, of Mercer County; Treasurer, J. M. Holmes, of Daviess County; Register of the Land Office, Bradford McGregor, of Kenton County; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Alexander Lusk, of Anderson County; Clerk Court of Appeals, R. T. Friend, of Boyle County.

The People's Party.

The Alliance delegates from Kentucky to the Nation Union Conference at Cincinnati this week met at Covington last night and organized "The People's Party." The following State ticket was nominated. For Governor, Judge Pollock Barber, of Jefferson County; for Lieutenant-Governor, Dr. S. F. Smith, of Franklin County; for Attorney General, Judge B. L. D. Guffey, of Butler County; for Auditor, W. G. Fulkerson, of Ohio County; for Treasurer, I. G. Sallee, of Trigg County; for Superintendent of Public Instruction, W. W. Morris, of Ballard County; for Register of Land Office, T. Herrell, of Butler County; for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, John G. Blair, of Nicholas County.

River News.

The Chancellor for Portsmouth and Congo for Pomeroy will pass up to-night. The Telegraph will pass down.

The Congo has taken the Boston's place in the Pomeroy trade temporarily. The latter boat is receiving repairs.

During the year 1890 the steamboats in the New Orleans district hauled 2,032,035 passengers, and lost only thirty-five, including twenty by fire, two by wrecks, thirteen by accidental drowning, and two by suicide.

The State of Missouri left Plaquemine, La., this week with the heaviest lumber cargo ever carried up stream. It included 130,000 feet, also 110,000 laths and 200,000 shingles. She had 500 tons upon leaving New Orleans.

Sealed Proposals.

Plans and specifications for the new M. E. Church, South, have been received and can be seen at the office of the Keith-Schroeder Harness Company. Sealed proposals for the erection of the church will be received until 4 p. m. June 1st, 1891. Building to be stone and brick. Bids will be received for parts or the whole. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. JOHN W. POWER, Chairman Building Committee.

P. O. S. of A. Notice.

District President George J. Sloan will be here to-night, and every member of Camp No. 3 is requested to be at the hall by 7:30 o'clock. W. F. COOPER.

The Board of Council will meet on Thursday night, May 28th, at 7:30 o'clock, to hear appeals from assessment of 1891. Until that time the Assessor's book will be in my possession, subject to inspection. M. A. O'Haire, City Clerk.

This being the season for step ladders, all lengths from three to ten feet long are in stock. Also wire screen doors and windows, self-adjusting. The "Matchless" hold-back spring hinge, the very best ever made. All of the above sold by Frank Owens Hardware Company.

FARMERS intending to offer their tobacco at the next auction sale of Frazee & Browning are requested to get it ready as soon as possible, as the firm has now in the house about 14,000 pounds, and expect to have another sale as soon as they have enough tobacco to justify them in inviting the buyers.

WANTED, 1,175 MEN AND BOYS, TO HELP US MOVE

Our entire stock of Clothing, Men's Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps, Trunks and Valises. "A penny saved is a penny earned." Our present stock consists of 1,175 full Suits, equal in style, fit and quality to the best custom-made. To each person buying one or more we guarantee A SAVING OF FROM TWO TO FIVE DOLLARS on each Suit. Reductions on other goods in proportion. June 1st we will occupy the Dodson Building, east corner Market and Second street, with an entire new stock, so the present one MUST be disposed of. Respectfully,

J. WESLEY LEE,

Clothing and Men's Furnishing Goods.

THE DEBATE AT FAIRVIEW.

"J. B. H." Writes Interestingly of the Theological Discussion Between Revs. Moody and Sweeney.

Correspondence of BULLETIN.

FAIRVIEW, FLEMING COUNTY, KY., May 20, 1891.—This week has been one of unusual stir and interest in this village. As announced, the theological debate between the chosen champions, J. B. Moody and J. S. Sweeney, on the design of christian baptism and other topics commenced at 10 o'clock Tuesday.

Both are veteran polemics, having heretofore entered the lists with all sorts of disputants, old and young, Baptists and Peco-Baptists, in amicable discussion, breaking numerous lances upon the brazen shields and steel caps of such members of the church militant as either foreordination or contingency threw in their way, and on the identical subjects in the present program.

There is much necessity for discussion, and opinions, creeds, baptisms, spirits and communions that would stand the fiery ordeal of intense genius and vigorous analysis of experienced debaters and scholarly critics should be taken no account of, or be regarded as mere matters of speculation or forbearance. Curiosity was no trifle to see and hear the distinguished divines, and the church and porticos, front and sides, were packed with an eager multitude. Clergymen and laymen, lawyers and doctors, merchants and farmers, belles and beaux were here from Richmond to Maysville.

J. S. Kendrick was selected by Mr. Sweeney as Moderator, and Mr. Moody chose Rev. Bruner as Moderator.

One hour was agreed upon in the opening of each new subject, for affirmant and respondent, and each thereafter, half hour alternately, to the termination of each subject.

An introductory song was sung, and Rev. Dr. Varden, of Paris, invoked the blessing of heaven, begging that the spirit of all wisdom might inspire our souls with the love of truth rather than victory.

Mr. Moody made the opening address. It was a carefully worded, written speech. He said the doctrines of the Bible were on trial, and may he who holds the truth also hold the field. He then went on to elaborate his theme—"Remission of Sins With Like Blessings of Salvation is Received Before Baptism." As a speaker, he is clear, earnest, pointed and impressive.

Mr. Sweeney responded in an effort of one hour in his peculiar style, abounding in apt and forcible illustrations. He thinks that honest investigation is the most certain way to effect truth. He is a brainy man, as clear as a sunbeam in his elucidation, making every problem in theological polemics easily understood by the masses.

As the debate unfolds in interest I will write the BULLETIN again. J. B. H.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

SOME of the coffee-house keepers held a meeting the other night to take steps to keep the license from being increased to $500 a year. They think their license is high enough, but would like to see the wholesale houses' license increased.

A LIVELY TIME

Between the Bradleyites and Their Opponents at the Republican Convention.

The Boss Wins—Colson Temporary Chairman—Proceedings of the Meeting.

About 1,000 delegates were present when the Republican State convention assembled at Lexington yesterday.

The meeting was called to order at 12:30 o'clock by General Landrum, Chairman of the State Central Committee. In his address, he said he thought "the Republicans of Kentucky need not despair." He wanted "the faint-hearted relegated to the rear," and "the youthful recruits placed at the front." He gave Boss Bradley a shot by saying "better fight the battle without leaders than enter the contest with a disorganized army." In concluding he said "Let our motto be 'United we stand, divided we fall.' He had forgot, probably, that that has been the motto of Kentucky Democrats from the start.

The State Central Committee had the night before selected Hon. D. G. Colson for temporary Chairman and Sam J. Roberts Secretary, but the anti-Bradleyites were opposed to Colson.

Judge Thomas opened the ball. He said the convention was not obliged to follow the action of the State committee, and he proposed Hon. D. J. Burchett for the position.

L. P. Tarlton, of Frankfort, agreed with Judge Thomas that the convention should select its own chairman.

John W. Yerkes made an impassioned appeal for Mr. Colson as the candidate of no faction.

Hon. A. R. Burnam made an eloquent speech in opposition to Mr. Colson. He said it was giving the State committee too much power, as the temporary Chairman would have the power to appoint two members of all the committees, and he contended that the State committee thus became a practically perpetual body, controlling the machinery of the party. Colonel Bradley replied to Mr. Burnam and defended the State committee's action.

Hon. George W. Jolly warmly endorsed Major Burchett, while Gen. S. S. Fry spoke for Mr. Colson.

The call of the State by counties was ordered, but the point of order was made that pending the completion of the temporary organization, the settlement of contests, etc., a call of the counties was not in order.

It was decided to call the counties, with the exception of those which had contests.

The result of the ballot showed Burchett 48½ and D. J. Colson 93½. The announcement of the result was greeted with wild yells from the Bradley-Wood-Colson followers.

At the district meetings previous to the regular convention, the delegates from the Ninth organized by electing R. C. Burns, of Boyd Chairman, and Postmaster Davis, of this city, Secretary. They made the following selections:

Vice President—Hon. George M. Thomas, of Vanceburg.
 Committee on Credentials—M. C. Hutchins, of Maysville.
 Permanent Organization—W. J. A. Rardin, of Greenup.

Resolutions—H. H. Gambill, of Blaine.
 Member State Central Committee—Lewis Lebus, of Cynthiana.

At last night's session nominations for Governor were made as follows: S. J. Pugh of Lewis nominated George Denny. E. C. Orear, of Montgomery, nominated A. T. Wood, of Mt. Sterling. This was seconded by Hon. W. O. Bradley. J. G. Scott, of Clark, nominated Major Silas Adams, of Casey County.

Upon the first ballot, and before the result was announced, Mr. Wood Dunlap, of Lancaster, withdrew the name of Denny. Then pandemonium reigned. Delegations began to change their votes, most of them going to Adams. A first-class row lasted for a quarter of an hour. Bradley demanded an announcement of the vote and was met by a declaration from Denny that the convention wanted no bosses. He was loudly cheered.

The first ballot was again taken, but before the vote was announced Colonel Adams arose and withdrew his name, moving that Major Woods' nomination be made unanimous. Loud calls for Judge Denny brought him to the stand. He denied being a candidate in an active sense, and seconded the motion to make Major Woods' nomination unanimous.

Wood was accordingly nominated by a rising vote. He is an attorney by profession, is a good speaker and was a soldier in the war of the rebellion.

The convention then adjourned till this morning.

Strawberry Supper.

The ladies of the Central Presbyterian Church will give a strawberry and ice cream festival Friday evening from 6 to 10 o'clock, at the residence of Rev. J. M. Evans. Refreshments, 25 cents. 20d3t

MR. C. P. VAWTER, of Springdale, has returned from Cincinnati, where he attended the National Union Conference this week.

REV. J. S. KENDRICK has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Christian Church of Winchester to take effect at the close of the year. He is serving his fourth year.

TWELVE HUNDRED pairs of shoes are being made by the factory at Ripley every week, and the output will soon be increased. The goods find a ready sale. The factory's pay roll is nearly $300 a week.

FIFTY cents instead of a dollar. Why? Why, so every one can try it and be convinced of the great merit of Pioneer Sarsaparilla. Thousands testify to its merits. Price, 50 cents. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

The earnings of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad for the second week of May show an increase of $20,981.63 over those for the corresponding week of last year. The figures are: 1891, $168,442.19; 1890, $147,400.56.

HUGH L. WHITE, a prominent citizen of Richmond, an elder in the Presbyterian Church, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself. Despondency over the loss of a daughter, who cut her throat some years ago, is attributed among the causes that led to the rash act.

The crops are saved and the farmers are rejoicing. The fine rain yesterday put an end to a drouth that was becoming rather serious. This assures a splendid wheat crop throughout this section, and will give the corn a fine start. A good deal of tobacco will be set out.

The memorial sermon of Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R., will be preached next Sunday morning at the M. E. Church by Rev. Dr. Hanford, the pastor of the church. All soldiers and sons of veterans are especially invited to attend. The public cordially welcome.

We are authorized to say that the reports of a debate between Dr. J. H. Young and Elder J. W. McGarvey, Jr., were premature. There has been no correspondence whatever between these gentlemen on this subject, and it is not likely there will be.—Kentucky Methodist.

The rain yesterday was general throughout the county, and there is an excellent season for putting out tobacco for all who were so fortunate as to have plants sufficiently large. We hear of some farmers in the Washington district who have plants enough to set out from four to six acres.

A BEAUTIFUL lawn or front yard is admired by all. The lawn mower is a fixed fact. Buy a Champion. It has less machinery to get out of order than any other. It is the best cutter made. Frank Owens Hardware Company sells this machine. Their third order made this season for them.

THE Cynthiana Courier says: "Judge Peers and wife, of Warrenton, Mo., were in Central Kentucky last week. The Judge was paying off the last claims against the Wabash railroad for the killing of horses and attendants last summer. He paid last Tuesday $900 to Frazier & Jameson, of this place, for their horse. Judge Peers has now paid $73,000 for men and horses killed and injured in that accident, and there are few other settlements to be made."

WASH SIMPSON, a well-to-do colored farmer living near Washington, died last night at the home of his sister near this city. He formerly belonged in the family of the late Colonel Marshall Key, of Washington, and was an industrious, thrifty man, and had accumulated considerable property—from $15,000 to $20,000. He was always much attached to the Key family and proud of the young members of it, two of whom served as Chiefs of Staff during the late war—one to McClelland and the other to Halleck.

A STATEMENT was made Tuesday that the BULLETIN had been informed by a reliable party that the Court of Claims voted an appropriation during the forenoon to an old negro woman who died four or five years ago. The appropriation was asked for through Squires Hunter and Belfry, and, at the time, the name of the woman seeking aid from the county was confounded with the name of another woman who had been on the pauper list also, but who had died. The mistake was soon afterwards discovered, and corrected by substituting the right name.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer says: "John Stevens came to the city Tuesday on his way to Maysville. At the Grand Central Depot hackmen Buckley and Apjohn agreed to drive him to the C. and O. Depot for nothing. When they arrived, however, they demanded twenty-five cents, which he gave up. He reported the matter to Officer McManus, who arrested the pair for obtaining money under false pretenses. Alonzo Cameron tried to square the matter by representing himself as a detective. He was locked up for impersonating an officer."
